

COLD AND FLOOD SWEEP SOUTH

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 11.—Floods followed by a freezing cold wave are causing great suffering and losses aggregating over ten million dollars and a score of lives throughout the south. Low lands everywhere, low lying parts of cities and many towns are covered with water and hundreds have been driven from their homes to higher grounds. Red Cross societies, government, state and municipal charity organizations are rushing food and clothing to the homeless. The waters continue to rise today in southern Georgia, Alabama and Mississippi. Railroad and wire traffic is demoralized and many sections are cut off entirely by tracks under water and miles of poles washed out.

TO CARRY OUT COAL CONSERVATION

Mayor Joseph M. Herbert and C. Rodman Stull Named to Aid Public Service Commission in Carrying Out Federal Orders in Kingston.

Mayor Canfield has appointed Joseph M. Herbert of the Herbert Brush Manufacturing Company and president of the Chamber of Commerce and C. Rodman Stull of the Kingston Gas and Electric Company to act with him as a local committee under the direction of the Public Service Commission, for the purpose of considering and making recommendations relative to the distribution of gas and electricity with particular reference to carrying out the spirit and intent of the general orders which have been issued by the federal authorities.

The fuel administration, acting through the railroad administration, requested the governor to designate instrumentalities for the purpose of co-operation in questions concerning the distribution and use of coal during the present emergency. In response to this request, Governor Smith designated the two Public Service Commissions.

The latter commission appointed a committee composed of Messrs. W. W. Nicholson and W. P. Capes, representing the Mayors Conference, Messrs. Mark Daly and A. E. Cluett, representing the Associated Manufacturers and Merchants, Messrs. J. F. Hutchings and E. H. Palmer, representing the gas and electric interests; and E. J. Cheney, representing the commission, with the request that it make recommendations in the matter. This committee recommended to the Public Service Commission that it call upon the executive head of each city and incorporated village to create a local committee representing the municipal authorities, the public utilities and the manufacturing and commercial interests. The Public Service Commission adopted the recommendation and notified Mayor Canfield today to appoint such committee.

Mayor Canfield will represent the city and Mr. Herbert is appointed to represent the manufacturing and commercial interests, and Mr. Stull the public utilities. The orders of the federal authorities have been published and require the minimum use of lighting, heat and power from bituminous coal and coke.

The particular functions of the local committee are as follows:

- (a) In cases where gas and electricity is generated entirely by bituminous coal, to co-operate in the enforcement of the orders of the fuel administration.
- (b) In cases where gas or electricity is generated partly by bituminous coal and partly by other means (such as anthracite coal or water power) to arrange schedules for the distribution of the gas and electricity that will utilize to the maximum that portion not dependent on bituminous coal.
- (c) In cases where gas or electricity is generated entirely by means other than bituminous coal, to use their influence to secure a reduction in the use of ornamental, sign and display lighting for the psychological effect.
- (d) In all cases, by publicity and other means, to point out to the public ways and means to economize in the use of coal and of gas and electricity in order that the maximum benefit can be secured from the available supply.
- (e) To take up the possibility, through voluntary effort and co-operation, of some redistribution of any excess stocks of coal on hand.

CHICAGO GETS G. O. P. CONVENTION

June 8 Named as Date—Resolution Adopted Recommends Ratification of Woman Suffrage.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Washington, Dec. 11.—Chicago was named overwhelmingly over St. Louis as the choice of the Republican National Committee for the convention. As predicted, June 8 was named as the opening day.

Summed up, the committee did little else than select committees, hear speeches by Gov. Sprout of Pennsylvania, Gov. McKelvie of Nebraska and Mrs. Medill McCormick of Illinois, name committees and adopt a resolution on suffrage.

Mary Garrett Hay of New York was present throughout the entire committee meeting, holding the proxy of Committee-man A. J. Sweet of Maine and voting on everything that came before the committee. Senator Smoot (Utah) proposed the suffrage resolution and it was adopted unanimously. It provides that "The National Republican Committee recommends the Republican Legislature to ratify the woman suffrage amendment." It congratulates the eighteen Republican states included in the twenty-two which have already acted and urges that special sessions in the other states be called before February 1 to complete ratification.

ROTARY LEARNS OF PORK PACKING

Changes in Methods and Changes in Prices Told in Interesting Vocational Talk By Local Business Man.

At the Rotary Club luncheon Wednesday Christmas plans were discussed and approved and it was decided that the dinner next week be held at the Y. M. C. A. on Tuesday evening, when the Rev. Dr. George Dugan of Albany will be the speaker. This will be a ladies' night.

The speaker of the day was Frank W. Thompson, who gave a very interesting and informal vocational talk on the meat packing business. The Thompson pork packing business in Rondout was established 72 years ago by Mr. Thompson's grandfather and was for many years a comparatively large concern. When it was handling 125 hogs a day they thought they were doing a big business. Nowadays the big western concerns handle 6,000 or more hogs a day. In the old days only edible parts of the hogs were used. Now use is found for everything but the squeal and, as in the modern method of killing the hog cannot squeal even if it is not wasted.

In Ulster county there were, in 1914, 14,000 hogs. Western packing houses often receive 100,000 hogs in one day and one concern could handle in two days all the hogs in Ulster county. In the early days of the Thompson plant local demands absorbed the entire product. Now they have extended the business over four or five counties. Smoking used to take a month. Now it is done in 24 to 36 hours. Hickory wood is used to furnish the smoke.

Mr. Thompson gave some comparative prices that were very interesting, the figures being for 1878 and July 1, 1919. These figures were:

Ham,	9 cents	23 cents
Bacon,	10 cents	45 cents
Lard,	8 cents	24 cents
Smoked beef,	13 cents	47 cents
Pork per bbl.,	$11.00	$65.00

After the meeting a social hour was enjoyed by all.

Mail Xmas Cards Early.

The post office urgently requests that people mail their Christmas cards early and avoid disappointment. The mail strike has caused a reduction of train service on some roads, and further curtailment will doubtless be necessary as the strike continues. This condition makes the early mailing of Christmas cards more this year more than usually important. Mail early, wrap securely, insure against loss and damage.

SMALL VERDICT FOR IDA FRASER

The jury in the case of Ida Fraser against Fred L. Wiedner to recover for false imprisonment, late Wednesday afternoon brought in a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $62, the amount which plaintiff spent in counsel fees and expenses incident to the arrest. The amount asked for in the complaint was $5,000.

The action brought by James B. Lunney against Sanford I. Tice to recover $164.64 on two promissory notes, was continued this morning.

An assault action brought by Hattie Weeks against William Kemble, will be taken up at the close of the present case. Chris J. Flanagan appears for plaintiff and Judge William D. Brinnier, Jr., appears for defendant.

TESTIMONY IN FRASER CASE

The action brought by Ida Fraser against Fred L. Wiedner, a justice of the peace, was continued in supreme court Wednesday. Miss Fraser sues for indignities alleged to have been suffered by reason of her arrest on a charge of stealing Mr. Schoonmaker's fish pole in the town of Shandaken. The testimony had already reached a point where Mr. Schoonmaker, caught in the barbed wire fence surrounding the plaintiff's property, had thrown his rod upon her land and she confiscated it. Considerable talk ensued and finally Mr. Schoonmaker testifies that he became angry and decided to go to the nearest justice of the peace and get a warrant for Miss Fraser's arrest, he claiming that she took the pole.

The Frasers live in the town of Shandaken and he went to Mr. Wiedner who lives in the town of Olive to secure the warrant for the arrest. As Mr. Wiedner was busy planting corn on that day he asked if the arrest might not be delayed a day or two so that he could finish planting his corn. This was agreed upon and two days later, on Wednesday, Deputy Sheriff A. Virgil Winchell in company with two state troopers went to the Fraser property and served the warrant. The two troopers going to serve a warrant upon Mr. Fraser on the charge of shooting at Millard Davis with an Iver Johnson "target" revolver.

Both warrants were served and the deputy and the troopers brought both Mr. and Miss Fraser along with them. The first stop was made at Justice Wiedner the judge said he was taken and bail was provided by her brother, the amount differs by the witnesses from $100 to "perhaps" $400. From there they went to Alabam where Mr. Fraser was arraigned before Justice Voss and held to await the action of the grand jury.

They returned home and now seek to recover for the damages done to Miss Fraser's health.

She testifies that she now "trembles and shakes and can't sleep at nights thinking of it." It is also claimed that Mr. Schoonmaker did not make a formal complaint and that while at the home of Justice Wiedner the judge said he could send her to jail for 6 months and fine her. Also it is alleged that being related to Mr. Davis, he referred to the shooting and called the Frasers a "nuisance" to the town. Mr. Wiedner claims that he told her what the complaint was and then read her the law from his law book.

Miss Fraser was later discharged after a couple of adjournments one of which was secured by Chris J. Flanagan who appeared for Miss Fraser. Frank W. Brooks who appears for Miss Fraser notified Judge Wiedner that his warrant was defective and the judge dismissed Miss Fraser after the second adjournment. Judge Van Etten with A. J. Cook of counsel appears for the defendant.

The action was completed at 4 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and submitted to the jury. Several attempts were made by the defense during the day to show that Miss Fraser and her brother, Philip Fraser, had created other disturbances before the day when they took the fish pole of Mr. Schoonmaker, the cause of the present action. Such attempts were not allowed to be followed out under rulings of the court but from one of the witnesses the fact became known that on one occasion Miss Fraser had removed the hogs, or snouts, from the axle of a Mr. Eckert's wagon, had removed the harness from the horse and taken it in the house after driving the horse down the roadway away from her property. This fact was, however, not allowed to get before the jury and Mr. Eckert was not allowed to testify as to what he said as a witness. When this happened, it did happen, and under just what circumstances was not made known. An attempt was made to prove that Miss Fraser had told Mr. Winne, the mail carrier, that when he was placed on the stand, but it was rejected by the court.

Millard Davis, who it was alleged, Mr. Fraser had shot at and missed as testified to in the morning, was called in the afternoon and was questioned as to the roadway through the Fraser property and the rights of way to properties lying further beyond the Fraser property. Mr. Davis testified that he had secured the fence on that

NEW PROVOCATION FROM MEXICO

Shipping Board Chairman Complains of Restricted Oil Output Owing to Interference With American Properties—23 Companies Claim Plants Seized Without Compensation.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Washington, Dec. 11.—President Wilson today is studying a new angle of the Mexican situation.

Representations that the Mexican government has taken steps to restrict the output of oil to the United States have been made to John Barton Payne, chairman of the shipping board and forwarded to the president according to a statement made by Representative Gould, of New York.

It is declared that the alleged interference of the Mexican government with American owned oil properties in Mexico may hamper the operations of a large number of oil burning vessels, owned by the government.

Agents of the oil interests have filed with Chairman Payne a large number of complaints and it is alleged that Mexican soldiers have stopped the drilling of oil wells, owned by Americans, on the ground that no permits have been secured.

The Jenkins affair, still held as pending by the state department, has apparently been set aside by the Mexican government. The United States still awaits a reply to its last note of protest, but thus far there has been no indication of its dispatch from the Mexican government.

The letter from twenty-three oil companies and addressed to members of congress, asks that congress as well as the state department, move to protect the rights and property of American land owners on foreign soil. The letter to members of congress declares:

"Within the last thirty days the Mexican government employing its armed soldiers has stopped American-owned companies from drilling oil wells in Mexico and has locked up their tools under government seals. The companies are thus deprived of the use and enjoyment of their own properties. And there exists no justification for these high-handed acts."

"The avowed policy of the Mexican government is to nationalize petroleum and this is the latest move to that end. Nationalization seems confiscation in this instance. There is no pretense of compensation, just or otherwise, and there is also lacking the element of national necessity."

RED CROSS GARMENTS.

Women's Loyalty Shown By Quick Work On Big Order.

One thing is certain. The hearts of the women of this community, so far as Red Cross work is concerned, are all right and they back up their loyalty by service, and prompt service at that.

It is only a very short time ago that a call was sent out for women of the community to take up the making of 725 girls chemises, a special order sent the Ulster County Chapter of the Red Cross. The order asked that these garments be ready to be returned by January 1st and it is quite evident that the request was complied with. Every one of the seven hundred and twenty-five little garments are being worked on in various homes. This fact shows that with the ending of the war, loyalty to service for others is by no means a dead letter in our community, and this will be a very real and beautiful Christmas gift from our women.

Played to Capacity House.

Wednesday evening the minstrel troupe of the J. O. C. M. played to a capacity house when the performance was repeated for the benefit of Aretas Lodge in the rooms of the Strand. Every number on the program went big, and it was one of the best amateur minstrel shows seen in a long time here.

All Name Implies.

Having witnessed an exposition of "The Shimmie" as it is interpreted in Washington street, Newburgh, Recorder Decker has decided that the interpretation is too literal and that it must be discontinued.

which Mr. Schoonmaker had become caught, to be removed later in the year as he had the right to use that point on the creek as a landing place in reaching his wood lot which lies higher up the mountain than the Brown property which is now owned by a number of Kingston people.

At the conclusion of the Fraser-Wiedner case the action brought by James B. Lunney of Washingtonville, Orange county, against Sanford I. Tice was begun. Mr. Tice lives in Sullivan county just across the Ulster county line. Mr. Lunney seeks to recover $145 on two promissory notes which he received from Mr. Tice, the notes having been given in a horse deal.

Mr. Lunney deals in horses and in June, 1918, he received two notes in payment for horses sold. The sale was made by Moses Wolf of Ellenville who accepted the notes. The notes in turn were turned over to Lunney who claims they never have been paid. The defendant claims that he paid Mr. Wolf but did not receive the notes when he paid them. Mr. Lunney and Mr. Tice never had direct dealings, the sale being made by Mr. Wolf.

C. A. Hornback with Cleon B. Murray appears for the plaintiff and John R. DeLong with Leroy Lounsbury appears for the defendant.

MEXICO DELAYS ANSWERING NOTE

Has Not Notified Washington of Jenkins' Release—President and Lansing in Harmony on Mexican Policy—Resentment Growing.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Washington, Dec. 11.—The United States is still without reply from Mexico and there is growing irritation here because of the failure of the Carranza government to respond to the state department's last note, calling for settlement in the matter of arrest and imprisonment of Consular Agent William O. Jenkins.

The state department feels there should be a reply and is expecting a reply, it was stated today. So far as the Mexican government is concerned, the state department does not know of Jenkins' release from the Puebla prison. The only information the United States has received on the subject came from its own representatives in Mexico City.

Nevertheless, there was no indication today as to when a reply might be expected.

Secretary Lansing again denied today there were any differences between him and President Wilson in reference to Mexico.

"There is not now and never has been any such differences," he stated.

It has been reported that he (Lansing) was on the verge of tendering his resignation as the result of a difference of opinion between him and the president over the Mexican policy.

There is absolutely no truth in the report, it was stated, and it was added the secretary of state and President Wilson were in thorough accord on the subject.

In government circles there seems to be a growing resentment against the silence of Mexico in the Jenkins case.

Several days ago unofficial information reached Washington that a Mexican newspaper had stated that a Mexican reply to the latest American note had been prepared and would be dispatched that day to Washington. Since then nothing of any kind has been heard.

COAL SUPPLY NOT NORMAL FOR SEVERAL WEEKS

Miners May Be Slow to Resume Work Following Strike Settlement—Government to Lift Restrictions Fast as Possible.

By Telegraph to The Freeman.
Washington, Dec. 11.—The government today turned its attention to bringing the nation back to a normal condition, with the coal strike settled.

With only one dissenting vote, the general committee of the United Mine Workers of America voted at Indianapolis yesterday afternoon to accept President Wilson's proposal to end the strike of more than 400,000 bituminous miners.

The government's first step will be the removal of restrictions, but Director General Hines declared that the public must not expect all of the restrictions to be lifted for several weeks, even though the economy is necessary in the use of fuel, even though the strike is settled, Director General Hines said and it will be impossible to restore the nation to a normal basis for some weeks to come.

Reports from the various mining fields today show that very few of the strikers have returned to work. The leaders will report today to the unions they represent the details of yesterday's meeting and the men may resume work Friday.

DAIRY OFFICERS RE-ELECTED

By Telegraph to The Freeman.

New York, Dec. 11.—Roswell D. Cooper of Little Falls, was re-elected president of the Dairymen's League at a meeting here yesterday of the newly elected board of directors of the organization, which has branches in New York, New Jersey northern Pennsylvania and most of the New England states. All of the other officers were re-elected.

An expected insurgent movement against the regime of Mr. Cooper, headed by Neil H. Strome of Walden and Mark A. DuBois of Poughkeepsie failed to materialize. The league adopted a resolution "officially repudiating the claim of Strome and DuBois that they represent dairymen in league territory."

Matthew T. E. DeWitt of Hurley represented the Kingston Branch of the Dairymen's League at the convention.

St. Joseph's Dramatic Club will present a three act farce comedy entitled, "The Private Secretary." The minstrel troupe of the J. O. U. A. M. will present a vaudeville sketch entitled "Old Plantation Days." Miss Amelia Riccobono will appear in special dances. The local committee urges the patronage and support of all.

Mr. Georgette played a fine selection on the African harp. Miss Josephine played several of the popular airs on the Hungarian dulcimer.

Then, after playing several selections on the marionettes, the entertainment was concluded. Those who attended the exhibition were greatly pleased and expressed their hopes that the musicians will come back again.

MRS. STOKES HAD PINE JAILED

Daniel Pine, aged about 60 years, was brought to jail this morning by Constable Charles Schipp on a commitment issued by Justice of the Peace Sidney Myer of the town of Marbletown to await the determination of the grand jury. On the endorsement on the commitment Pine is charged with disorderly conduct. According to the face of the paper on which Pine was held by Squire Myer the disorderly conduct consisted of "using disgraceful, slanderous and abusive language to the complainant, Elizabeth Stokes." According to Pine he and the husband of Mrs. Stokes have a disagreement as to the amount due the latter for work on the farm, that during an argument he made a statement about Mrs. Stokes and she had him arrested and arraigned before Justice of the Peace Myer. There is a question whether the commitment of Pine as made out is legal.

Mrs. Percy Bennett

Mrs. Percy Bennett, wife of Mr. Percy Bennett, of the British Diplomatic Service, who will shortly accompany her husband to Panama, where Mr. Bennett will represent Great Britain as minister. Mrs. Bennett is well known in the United States and is exceedingly popular in London, where she has many American friends.

Mrs. Thompson's Seal Work.

Mrs. Thompson, president of the Association of Women's Clubs is certainly a woman of initiative, and her work will long stand as one of the most educational features of the seal work ever carried on in the city. In addition to taking an airplane to visit our people of the birth and language. Mrs. Thompson, has, with possibly two exceptions, interested the milk dealers of the community in the seal work this year, and in a day or two she hopes to have ready for publication in The Freeman, the list of milk dealers who will on Christmas morning put on their milk bottles the seal which seals that have and are doing so much to put an end to this land.

Fast Growers.

Customer—I should like to know why the potatoes at the bottom of the sack you sold me last week are so much smaller than those at the top.
Green Grocer—"Well, mum, potatoes is growin' that fast now that be the time a sackful is due the first ones is about twice the size of the last ones in London lands."

Two of A Kind.

"A scientist, eh?"
"Yes."
"What's his specialty?"
"He's trying to find a substitute for smoking."
"I have an eccentric friend he ought to meet."
"What is your friend working on?"
"Perpetual motion."

Just as Egyptians Did.

The best-known method of flooring is known as "tongued," and the Egyptians knew how to do that, says the American Forestry Magazine of Washington. Both edges are grooved and a flat dowel, made as a separate piece, fits in both grooves and serves as the tongue.

Card of Thanks.

SALVATION ARMY.

Appearance of Their Kettles Another Xmas Portent.

Last Sunday the first part of the band appeared at the public night meeting and furnished the music for the first time. There were ten instruments on the platform and they gave a creditable rendering of the music. This Sunday the band will be increased by two or three new members.

A fifteen minute song service is held previous to the meeting on Sunday night. This starts at 7:15.

On Saturday night Rev. Thompson of Glasgow will give his illustrated lecture, "Pilgrim's Progress," at the hall at 8 o'clock. Rev. Thompson has 63 beautiful colored slides on the subject as well as illustrated songs and bears himself a gifted lecturer, the service ought to prove of great benefit to all attending.

On Saturday night preceding the service the new Songster Brigade will sing for 15 minutes.

The Young People's meeting on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 has an interesting program this week, which includes an instrumental trio, cornet, baritone and trombone.

Sunday night at 8 o'clock, following the regular song service, Captain Louise Young will speak. The captain, who spent eighteen months with the First Division in France and Germany, has been under constant fire and has many interesting as well as thrilling things to tell us about.

The Salvation Army Christmas kettles, which announce the coming of the Xmas season, will make their appearance this Saturday. It is planned to feed about 250 persons.

Unlucky Gift.

I ended the farm hand but to come and eat his breakfast. While he was eating I went out to feed the chickens. After feeding the chickens I went back to the house and as the boy had eaten I started to clear off the table when to my surprise I found that instead of eating his breakfast he ate the breakfast I had prepared for the man. —Chicago Tribune.

Gifts That Live.

That's the kind you'll find here. Gifts your friend will turn to every day—useful as well as ornamental. It makes no difference what you want to send, our suggestions range from a Handkerchief & Mark set of 12 for $7.50 to a handkerchief or a gold link chain for $25.00. All are practical gifts every man needs. You'll have to show us the young man who isn't always in need of new shirts, neckties, silk socks or handkerchiefs, and isn't tickled to death with any of them. Only the best quality of this store, newest patterns and styles, too. S. COHEN'S, 331 West Street, Kingston, N. Y. —Advertisement.

Spicy Advertising.

Charles Dudley Warner, who was connected for many years with the Company of Hartford, Conn., was accused that the colonial newspaper was a "broadsheet of state news with a moral essay attached." Warner may be true of the name some of the advertisements in these old newspapers were rather interesting reading, or at least they are now. There was nothing very state in this item dwelt on at regular rates in the New York Gazette in 1734.

Whereas James Moore of Woodbridge has advertised in this Gazette as well as in the papers sent out and posted up, that his wife, Belle Moore, has eloped from his bed and board, There are to certify, that the same is altogether false, for she has lived with him since eight years under the tyranny and incredible abuse of He has several times attempted to murder her, and also turned her out of doors, shamefully and cruelly, which is well known to the neighbors and neighborhood in Woodbridge.

Melting Ice To Get Water

Wouldn't it be foolish to melt ice every time we wanted to use water?

But when we use butter or lard compounds in cooking, we melt them until they become fluid.

The melting process takes place in the oven after they are mixed with other food, or in the frying pan.

That is the simple science of cooking with fats.

What we want is the fluid fat.

SALANUT is fluid fat, the refined oil of the peanut—pure vegetable oil.

Filtration and boiling under a vacuum remove the peanut flavor. Live superheated steam passed through it insures purity. Hermetically sealed cans guarantee it against contamination.

SALANUT simplifies cooking.

Wee Ways In Fashion

To the biggest eyes in the world to the tip top curl and saucy dimples—it is surprising how engaging such a combination links itself to all the curves of pinks and blues ever known to fashion. Babies were made for naive trifles of ribbons, for bits of lace, spun of moonshine for flowers—soft lengths of fair fabrics and babies have a genius for being becoming to anything—which is the way a pink rose is of always being becoming to spring.

A bundle of shy laughter—of blue and golden dreams—a wide awake wonder—that is your baby.

ENRAGED MOTHER BEATS UP TEACHER

Italian Woman of Milton Angered Because Daughter Was Kept After School—Fined $10.

Because her daughter was kept in after school the Tuesday before Thanksgiving, an Italian woman of Milton proceeded to thrash Miss Ruth E. Palmateer, the town of Lloyd, teacher in the primary room at District No. 2 on the state road between Marlborough and Milton.

Miss Palmateer kept the little girl after school hours in order to help her with her lessons. When her daughter did not return home at the usual time, the mother started after her, picking up a stick about a yard long, on the way. When she arrived at the school and discovered that her daughter had been kept in by the teacher, she rushed at Miss Palmateer, striking her with the stick over her back and shoulders with such force that the stick broke. A piece of the stick struck Miss Palmateer in the face, cutting her. The enraged mother then attacked the teacher with her hands, hitting her again in the face and on the shoulders. As she left the room she threatened to meet Miss Palmateer at the station and thrash her again.

Miss Palmateer, very much frightened, made a complaint to Justice Northrup of Milton, who issued a warrant for the parent's arrest. The woman was taken before the justice on Tuesday, December 2. She pleaded guilty, stating that she was very angry at the time she made the assault on Miss Palmateer. Justice Northrup gave her a severe lecture and fined her $10 instead of giving her a jail sentence as the woman is the mother of seven children, the youngest of which is less than three months old. The fine was paid.

Can Hire Wedding Presents.

In Paris there are shops where wedding "presents" can be hired. Mothers who wish the display of presents at their daughter's wedding to be dazzling can go to the shops and arrange for borrowing articles. An employee attends the wedding in disguise to watch the presents.

What About Father?

Around Christmas time he hasn't much to say; he doesn't care about the fussy, fancy stuff the rest of the family gets. A tie, or a handkerchief tickles him to death. This year we want to suggest a little more consideration for father. Our recommendation is one of these fine Hart Schaffner & Marx suits for business men. You couldn't do a finer thing, or one he'd appreciate more. He'll like the quiet dignified style in these clothes and the perfect fit will give him. The family will like the fine appearance he makes as long as he wears the suit. S. COHEN'S SONS, 231 Wall Street, Kingston, N. Y. The home of Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes.—Advertisement.

SAVING AN AID TO XMAS GIVING

Uncle Sam, in Santa Role, Brings Yuletide Joy to Thousands Who Have Saved Tidy Christmas Funds.

With the Yuletide season now at hand, thousands of people in the Second Federal Reserve District, who a few years ago were introduced to the practice of saving, will thenceforth have good cause to rejoice. At this time they will observe with satisfaction how the habit of systematic saving, so easy when once acquired, has grown to gratifying proportions.

Throughout the long and lean years of war, the spirit of thrift became inculcated in the minds of the American public first as a matter of patriotic necessity, and was retained as a matter of practical economy. Throughout this period there has been a tendency to observe the Christmas season by indulgence less and less in gifts of no practical value. This year this marked improvement in the matter of gift giving, when general living costs are at such an excessive level, will likely be even more rigidly observed. Instead of the usual useless trinket or token of remembrance, which for years has been a predominating characteristic of the Yuletide season, the American people have grown to indulge in making practical Christmas gifts.

With the introduction of Savings and Thrift Stamps, an innovation was started by giving as remembrances Government securities of recognized and absolute value. Not only did this tend to reduce the practice of senseless exchange of useless articles, but it also rendered a definite aid and support to the Government. Like all habits which are once formed, this practice has been continued, with the result that this year will find an increased number who will make useful and valuable Yuletide remembrances in this substantial form.

For those who are saving for themselves, the steady and systematic investment throughout the year in Savings and Thrift Stamps affords a ready means for accumulating a Christmas fund for individual use; and while the practice of redeeming stamps is not recommended, it, nevertheless, forms a safe means for providing a cash fund for such a purpose. Accumulations of Savings Stamp books may be exchanged for Treasury Savings Certificates, which have recently been issued by the Government in denominations of $100 and $1,000. To those whose means afford Christmas remembrances in such amounts, no better, more substantial or welcome gift could be found. For the Christmas spirit, which takes into consideration such a practical means of evidencing personal remembrance, Treasury Savings Certificates are suggested as a solution of the ever present problem of "What to Give."

Thousands who have never saved before are, through the handy and safe method, saving now, and thousands more will be added to the list of those who are becoming disciples of the doctrine of "Work and Save," which contemplates producing more, consuming less, and saving some.

Regular payments will be made this season through the medium of Treasury Savings Certificates and Savings Stamps. This method, adopted during the war, will be practiced to an increased extent hereafter because of the introduction of Savings Certificates, which have been on sale only since the past summer. Many banks have announced their intention of adopting this method of making customary annual bonus payments, and it is expected that hundreds of industrial and business firms will do likewise.

RACIAL GROUPS IN RACE FOR THRIFT.

In a number of big industrial cities in New Jersey contests are being arranged between the various racial groups to determine which at the end of a given period shall have developed the largest number of its people as systematic savers and investors in Savings Stamps and Treasury Savings Certificates.

Editors of various foreign language newspapers have the contests in charge and have appointed group leaders who will act as agents of the Savings Division of the Treasury Department. These leaders are organizing savings societies and attempting to reach as many of their countrymen as possible.

The contest is based on the number of buyers rather than on the amount invested, as it is the purpose to interest as many of the foreign born population as possible in the all American thrift game by bringing Uncle Sam's stability as a banker before them.

Henry G. Maas

Henry G. Maas, third officer of the American liner Sutherland, who in a daring rescue of two longshoremen from the icy waters of the North River, New York, won the unstinted praise of thousands who lined the shores and the deck of the liner, Maas, who weighs but 125 pounds, succeeded in holding up the two men, whose combined weight was 375 pounds, until a rope could be thrown from the pier. The rescue of the two men brought Maas's list of lives saved up to five in his short career on the sea.

BEYOND POINT OF PERFECTION

Porter's Description of Train Service is Old, but Has Distinct Tinge of Humor.

President Franklin Harrison of the Alabama Great Southern railway, said at a luncheon in Richmond:

"The old jokes about poor service on some of our southern and western railroads are antiquated. No trains in the world are more punctual today than our trains, and accidents are practically unknown."

"The story about the porter and the late traveler," President Harrison continued good humoredly, "is an old one."

"A traveler, according to this story, just missed a train on a certain southern line, notorious for its poor service, and got the following consolation from a porter:

"See the punctual train sir, on the line and a great annoyance to travelers."

See What He Started. Sent by the porter, "Iron Sticks" in a shop window a sign read: "We are sorry that you were not here to see the finest iron work."

Alive to the occasion the smart shop-

keeper retorted:

"Yes, and then the best wine vaults, snapper springs and rolls, grass slopes, music stands, Niagara falls, moonlight walks, sheep on Kent hops and holiday trips, sea, at spreads, stand, and weights, beta rubber tires, the organ stops, the world goes round, trade returns, and—"

But the visitor had halted. After collecting his thoughts he returned and showing his head at the doorway, shouted: "Yes, I know, and marble busts."—Irish World Minister Called Strike Breaker.

By Telegram to The Freeman. Poughkeepsie, Dec. 11.—There is a split in the First Baptist Church, at Beacon because the pastor, the Rev. Howard J. Kingston, whose salary as pastor is $1,000 a year, has taken a job in a local hat factory. The pastor explained that the high cost of living as driven him to hat making as a side line. The protest against the pastor's action is led by a group of members of the church, who went on strike at the hat factories a few months ago. The strike is still on. Pastor Kingston is characterized by his enemies as a strikebreaker.

That $350 Necktie.

The period is the smallest character used in printing but a misplaced period can result in some amusing things. For instance, those $350 neckties advertised by the R. G. Howard Payne's Great Song.

The song "Home Sweet Home" was written by John Howard Payne and was introduced by him into the play "The Maid of Milan," which was later changed into opera. At the time of the writing of this lyric, Payne was almost starving in an attic in Palais royal, Paris. Most authorities agree that the music of the song is a Sicilian air, adapted by Sir Henry Rowley Bishop.

FOOLISH IDEAS SOME HAVE

Capt. Lindsey Polk, director of a number of hotels, said recently in New York:

"European hotels, even the best of them, are inferior to ours. While I was in Paris I saw an advertisement of a fashionable new hotel, and the boast the management made was that it was as good as the best American hotels. I was pleased with this tribute."

Captain Polk smiled. "Well," he resumed, "our ideals are high. No more hotel keepers like the old fellow who complained about his summer visitors:

"You wouldn't believe the nonsense that is in them. They are always wantin' a clean tablecloth and clean sheets to their beds. An' table napkins, no less! I'll tell you what, there's sure people in this world that think they can go into a hotel and make a convulsion of it."

Wives and mothers—this isn't as bad as the coffee drinker who at Christmas time gave his wife, who detests coffee, a nice copper porcelain, but it's good business, just the same. Give him for Christmas a dozen or half dozen pairs of socks. You won't have so much darnin' to do."

OLD SAYING SLIGHTLY MIXED

Familiar "Before You Could Say Jack Robinson" Does Not Convey the Right Idea.

Opinion differs as to the proper duration of a social call. "Anywhere from ten minutes to a half hour," says the woman who has a social secretary and whose daily job is "calling" to the tune of tea and waifers. "All afternoon," says the bourgeoisie, who takes along her knitting and sits down to coffee and cake. "And then," say some, "it all depends upon the call. On some occasions and with different people we stay longer than others."

But Jack Robinson's calls never varied. He never stayed long enough to wear out his welcome. In fact hardly had he been announced, hardly had the servant who admitted him spoken aloud his name than he was gone.

So, as you see, "before you can say Jack Robinson" has no reference to the time it takes to say it. "As long as you can see Jack Robinson" would be more in order with its origin and significance.

An old painter used to give this advice—"If you want your house green, use green paint." Obvious, of course; so is this advice: "If you want a Christmas gift for a man; go to a man's store." Ours for instance. A Christmas gift suggestion from

NEW EXPRESS COMPANY RULES

Go Into Effect Today and Xmas Shippers Should Observe Them—Paper-wrapped Packages Must Not Exceed 25 Pounds.

The new express packing rules go into effect today, according to a statement by Agent Houghtaling, in charge of the local express office. Under the regulations now in force, all express shipments over 25 pounds must be forwarded in wooden containers or cartons bearing the boxmakers' certificate as to strength and size required by the express company.

No change is contemplated in the shipments under the 25 pound limit, which will still be accepted wrapped in paper. Agent Houghtaling advised Christmas shippers not only to send their holiday packages early, but to see that they were properly packed and accurately addressed.

"We expect a very heavy movement of Christmas gifts by express this year," said Mr. Houghtaling, today, "and this at a time when we are handling a greater amount of traffic than at any period in the history of the railroads. It will be well for Christmas shippers to keep in mind the 25 pound limitation for paper wrapped packages. Most holiday presents, we believe, are under that weight and are, therefore, not affected by the new rules."

"But any shipments over 25 pounds must be forwarded in special containers, and we will be very glad to give anyone interested full information as to how they should prepare their Christmas presents for shipment by express."

LUTHERAN CLUB IS PROGRESSING

Another Meeting Will be Held Friday Evening at Church of Redeemer—County Wide in Scope.

Another meeting will be held at the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer Friday evening when further steps will be taken in organizing a Lutheran men's club in this city. The meeting will be held in the Bible school rooms of the church and will be called at 8 o'clock. It is expected that between 50 and 100 men, representing the Lutheran congregations in the city, will be present, as much interest has been stirred up since the first announcement that a club of this kind would be formed in this city.

At Friday night's meeting, several men will present the needs and advantages of a Lutheran brotherhood in this city, and also of the good that is being accomplished by such brotherhoods in other cities. It is likely that a committee will be named tomorrow night to draft a constitution. Another feature of the organization will be club rooms. A committee will not doubt be appointed tomorrow night to secure rooms. This will not only give the organization a meeting place but will also afford the members a place where they can meet any or all nights in the week for clean amusement and wholesome recreation.

Due probably to the fact that meetings are now being held in the Church of the Redeemer many Lutheran men of other congregations are laboring under the impression that the organization is connected with that church and only open to members of that church. This is not so. This club will not be affiliated with any congregation. Its membership will be open to all Lutheran men over 16 years of age. Meetings are being held in the Church of the Redeemer because that church has offered the use of its rooms to the organization until other accommodations have been secured. The club will be county wide in its scope. It will not work for any one congregation but for the good of all.

Following the business meeting tomorrow night, a social time will ensue, at which time there will be "eats." All Lutheran men of the city over 16 years of age are urged to be present.

We call him strong who stands unmoved—
Calm as some tempest-beaten rock—
When some great trouble hurts its shock,
We say of him, "His strength is proved."
But when the spent storm folds its wings
How bears he then life's little things?
—Ellen Alleton.

A FEW GOOD SOUPS.

There is no one dish more usually liked than a well-seasoned soup. The following will be found suggestive:

Liver Soup.—Take half a pound of cold-cooked liver and grind it through a meat chopper. Fry one small onion sliced in two tablespoonfuls of sweet fat, then add the liver. Add one cupful of dry bread crumbs, season with salt, pepper and add three pints of good stock. Cook fifteen minutes, add a beaten egg yolk and serve at once.

Scotch Soup.—Peel and slice enough onions to make a cupful; cut fine one carrot and two stalks of celery. Fry brown in butter, being careful not to burn. When brown, add three pints of water in which a chicken has been boiled and one-half cupful of cooked chicken cut fine. Cover the saucepan and simmer forty minutes. Beat the yolk of an egg, season with salt and pepper. Mix with a little of the soup; add the remainder of the soup and heat carefully but do not boil. Serve with diced bread.

Dutch Soup.—Put a half cupful of grated cheese into a saucepan with three pints of milk. Simmer gently for ten minutes. When the cheese is dissolved season with pepper and salt and a pinch of sugar. Add half a cupful of cold-cooked macaroni, cut in bits. Beat three eggs until foamy, mix with a little of the soup. Add carefully to the hot soup and serve with diced toasted bread.

Cream of Celery Soup.—Have ready one cupful of celery and put through a sieve. Reduce the water in which the celery was cooked to half a cupful. Put into a saucepan one tablespoonful of butter, season with salt and pepper and stir in two tablespoonfuls of flour. Mix well. Add three cupfuls of milk and stir until it boils. When the mixture is like thin cream add the celery and the celery liquor. Reheat and serve at once.
